THIS WEEK'S WORD

Matthew 18:21-35

Focus: Education

Learning to love, forgive and make peace

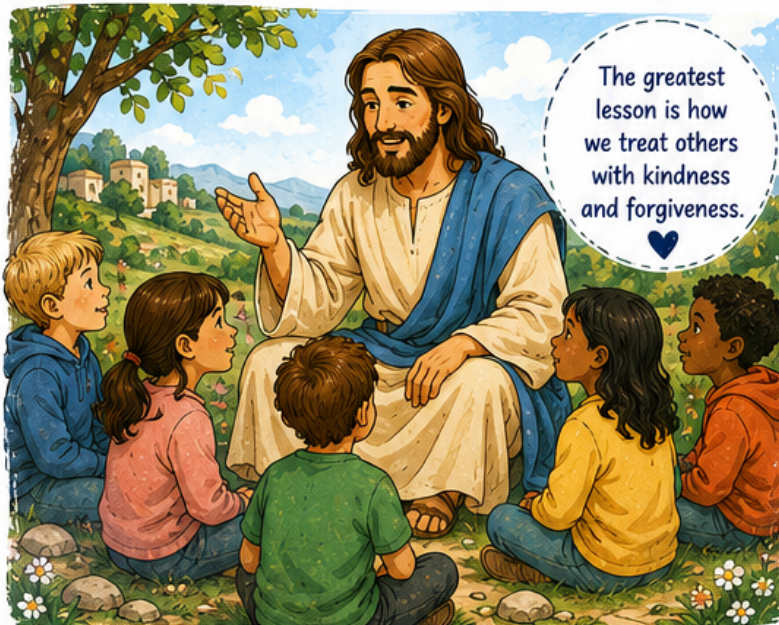

THE GOSPEL

“ Peter came to Jesus and asked,
“Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?”
Jesus answered, “Not seven times, but seventy-seven times.”

Then Jesus told them the parable of the unforgiving servant.
A king forgave a servant a huge debt. But when that servant found someone who owed him a little money, he would not forgive him and had him thrown into prison.

When the king heard about this, he was very angry. He called the servant back and said, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you that huge debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?’ And the king gave him the punishment he deserved.

This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart.

THE KEY MESSAGE

Jesus teaches us that forgiveness has no limit. Just like we are forgiven again and again, we are called to forgive others from our hearts. This is a powerful lesson about love, mercy and learning to put others first.

REFLECTION – THINK, PRAY, DISCUSS

Peter thought seven times was enough, but Jesus showed him forgiveness should always come from the heart. The servant in the story forgot how much he had been forgiven and refused to forgive someone else. Jesus wants us to learn from this.

A good education is not only about reading, writing or numbers.
It is also about learning to be kind, patient and forgiving.

- ★ When we forgive, we build peace.
- ★ When we show mercy, we reflect God's love.
- ★ When we learn these lessons, we grow in wisdom and become better people.

THE LESSON WE LEARN

Education helps us understand the world, but Jesus helps us understand how to live with love.

From today's Gospel, we learn:

- ✓ Forgiveness is a choice we make.
- ✓ Everyone makes mistakes.
- ✓ We are all in need of God's mercy.
- ✓ Forgiving others helps our hearts become more like Jesus.

LET US PRAY

Dear Jesus,
You are the best teacher we could have. Thank you for showing us how much God loves us and how forgiveness can change hearts.
Help us to learn from your words
and your example.

Give us the wisdom to forgive
others, the patience to be kind,
and the courage to choose love every day. May we use all we learn to build a peaceful and loving world.

Amen.

THIS WEEK'S MISSION

Learn it. Live it.

This week, I will put Jesus' lesson
into practice.

I will try to:

- ♥ Forgive someone who has upset me, even if it is hard.
- 👤 Say kind words and treat everyone with respect.
- 🧠 Remember that we are all learning and growing, just like me.
- ✝️ Thank God for forgiving me and help me forgive others.

LOVE GOD
LOVE OTHERS
BE THE BEST WE CAN BE

Together in Jesus, we can make the world a kinder place.
